How will we handle your complaint?

Our complaints officer will oversee the complaints process. This person is responsible for liaising with you and with relevant agency staff to ensure that the issue you have raised are fully examined, and that your complaint is handled in accordance with this process.

We will treat the process, and all the details of the complaint, in strict confidence. If we need to discuss any issues arising from your complaint with someone outside the agency, we will obtain your consent first.

We will always try to give you a fair opportunity to explain your case. You should make your initial complaint as clear as possible. Sometimes we may want to meet you in person to discuss your concerns and try to find a satisfactory solution.

How long will it take?

We will endeavour to resolve your complaint as soon as possible. However, the length of time will depend on the nature and complexity of the issues you have raised.

You will receive acknowledgement of receipt of the complaint from us within two business days, We will give you an estimate of how long it will take us to deal with the matter and we will endeavour to finalise the matter within five business days.

What action will we take in response to your complaint?

If we decide that your complaint is justified, we will then decide what actions we should take in response. We will always try to match our response to the nature of your complaint and your desired outcome, but this may not always be possible.

Some of the things we might do include:

- Take steps to rectify the problem or issue you have raised.
- Provide you with additional information or advice so you can understand what happened or how we have dealt with it.
- Take steps to change our policies or procedures if your complaint identifies a problem in the way we are doing things.

What if you're still unhappy?

Sometimes it will not be possible to resolve a complaint to everyone's satisfaction, and you might want to escalate the matter to the Estate Agents Resolution Service (EARS) at Consumer Affairs Victoria (CAV).

EARS is able to deal with enquiries and complaints about real estate agents. The service has been established within CAV to offer a dedicated service for information, advice and dispute resolution on real estate issues.

You can telephone EARS on 1300 73 70 30 weekdays to discuss your complaint.
